

CLOAKROOM RULES

1. Use of the cloakroom is at the risk of the user. The Civil Code relating to "custody" does not apply to agreements between users of the cloakroom and us.
2. Usage of the cloakroom carries a fixed price per item printed next to these rules, which needs to be paid in advance. Items accepted are limited to coats, jackets, bags, helmets, and umbrellas. These or similar items are not to be taken into the venue, except for handbags. Items with a value of €100,- or higher, including their content, should not be handed into the cloakroom, if yes. The cloakroom assumes no liability for damage or loss of items with a value higher than €100,-.
3. We are entitled to check the contents of all items. We reserve the right to refuse custody of very valuable, large, or unusual items or items with a (possibly) prohibited, dangerous or questionable content. User shall indemnify us for damage caused by the (contents of) the user during the safekeeping of items.
4. One ticket will be given per item deposited item. Return of items will only be possible upon presentation of this receipt to a cloakroom assistant of [your company name] The same applies to the temporary return of items. In the latter, a new receipt will be issued against payment per item.
5. If you lose the ticket we will endeavor after closing or at the end of the event to find the item with your ID including a penalty of €6,-. If no ticket can be shown, we are in no way responsible for the consequences.
6. We will make every effort to take care of all items in her custody and to return items safely & promptly. We however cannot guarantee that all items at all times will always be returned undamaged.
7. We are not liable for damages to the items stored, except for damage caused by the company's or its employees' intent or gross negligence. Liability for indirect or consequential damages is excluded. Our liability of us is always limited to €100,- per deposited item, including its contents.